Dec '85

I climbed my family tree; convinced it was worth the climb. I soon scurried down. I should not waste time for some of the branches were rotten to the core, hollow, or full of sap. Before I made this climb, I was often told of those not worth a dime, but I found those in some way to be good and fine. Well me, I'm not so great but I just try to do a little good even in my state.
